

Dear Wonderful Muir Community,

We are getting close to the end of the school year, yet still have many exciting weeks ahead of us. One of the most important things to think about as the weather becomes more pleasant is safety. As the days are longer, we know that there are more unsupervised outdoor activities. We live and work in great neighborhoods, but please do reinforce our messages of care as we cross streets, play in places where there are many other people, and especially care in dealing with strangers. Teachers, police, and fire departments spend time during the school day addressing safety, but we know that you have the first and most profound influence on your children. Each is precious and we all want them to have fun and grow up.

We will begin the process of sorting students for next year as soon as we have our final enrollment figures. A letter to each parent was sent home to solicit input on the kind of classroom in which you believe your student will most likely flourish. We ask that you describe the kind of teacher that might match your child's learning style, rather than requesting a specific teacher. This is a tremendous task, but one that we undertake seriously and carefully to develop learning communities for each classroom. Thank you in advance for working with us on this task. We appreciate your support and most especially your children.

We continue to be honored to be serving such caring and supportive families. Please feel free to contact us if you have any questions or concerns.

Respectfully,

Brad Carter, Principal Julie Gluff, Asst. Principal
