AGENDA

- Participants will learn how to use the web for implementation, public relations, dissemination of data, and sharing.
- Your resource packet will assist you to a) start your own website, b) gather usage data from your website, c) disseminate ideas through the website, d) gather support through the website, e) highlight effective implementation and f) provide ways to make data-based decisions from the website.
- Data Collection and representation for decision-making
- We will also discuss ways to use www.pbis.org to supplement your PBIS implementation.

IMPORTANT CAVEAT

Good

This is how you build support

- Administrative Supports
- Business Supports
- Support Groups

Bad

- Be very careful what is posted on the website.
- All it takes is a click of Google or Yahoo and you can pull up pictures of children

WEB DEVELOPMENT

Before we build- What can be there?

- Data Pieces
- Teaching Pieces

Setting Up a Website

Domain Name

- If you use a free website you will have something like:
 - <http://teacherweb.com/ourschoolpbs.htm>
 - You can take a long URL like this one and go to www.tinyurl.com and input a shorter name and it will save it as a shorter name.
- If you want to register a domain name then you will have something easy like:
 - www.pbismaryland.org
